

Fight For Kisses. Remastered

A Special Campaign from Wilkinson

October 26, 2009 - 11:40

This video is about the old well known war between men and babies over the love of the women. The viral website exploits the Edipus Complex. On the animated website you can find an advergame and this funny trailer that generated a lot of buzz throughout the blogs. You can order nice tattoos to impress your wife or girlfriend we suppose. This advertising campaign used a different angle for this market which is always a good point in a saturated advertising market. The site was created by 5emegauche and the advergames by Ginger Studios. This commercial won numerous awards in 2007 and 2008.
