

Impressive Daihei Shibata with "The Light of Life"

Poetic Vision and CG Creation from a Japanese Artist with Capitols

March 10, 2010 - 20:32

Words from the author: Life is transparent, warm and swirls randomly like a soft light.

And it constantly changes ...

Life illuminates itself and then it begins to illuminates a new life.

A sprouted mass of innumerable lights become a flow before long, and then become the part of the life-throb of ages. That ties life, this moment now.
